2016 BNP PARIBAS OPEN HOTEL, MINI AND GROUP PACKAGES NOW AVAILABLE

Hotel, mini and group packages for the 2016 BNP Paribas Open are on sale now and offer an array of benefits such as resort stays, preferred box and suite seating at the tournament, transportation to the venue, on-site tennis clinics, and behind-the-scenes tours of the second largest tennis stadium in the world – Stadium 1.

With six different hotel packages there are plenty of options, including First Serve (3/9-3/11), Aces Weekend (3/11-3/13), Champions (3/14-3/17), Final Four Days (3/17-3/20), Advantage Weekend (3/18-3/20) and Masters Week (3/13-3/20). Each package affords fans 14 different hotel properties to choose from, including Renaissance Indian Wells Resort & Spa, Hyatt Regency Indian Wells Resort & Spa, Miramonte Resort & Spa, and Indian Wells Resort Hotel. In addition, the variety of ticket types affords the best locations available, including the opportunity to sit in a luxury air-conditioned suite, lower bowl box seats and upper bowl loge seats, which all have an excellent vantage point of Stadium 1. All of the hotel packages include hotel/Tennis Garden shuttle service (some exceptions apply), official tournament program and daily drawsheets.

The Masters Week package offers fans the opportunity to play on the same courts as the pros in a one-hour tennis clinic and meet-and-greet with a former tennis pro, and also to take a behind-the-scenes tour to see where players relax, international journalists work, broadcast media televis around the world, and to catch a glimpse of the inner workings of one of the biggest sporting events in the world.

In addition to the hotel packages, some of the most popular options for tennis fans are the mini- packages, which offer five different options, including the Kick-Off Weekend (six sessions, 3/11-3/13), Evening (nine sessions, 3/10-3/18), Mid-Week (six sessions, 3/15-3/17), Final Weekend (four sessions, 3/18-3/20) and the Championship Weekend (two sessions, 3/19-3/20). Mini-packages provide the same great seat location for all sessions located in the lower bowl box seat sections, the upper bowl loge seat section, as well as the luxury club suites. Early purchase helps to ensure the best seat locations.

Group packages offer value for 10 or more patrons and include complimentary tickets as well as seating in all premium seating locations including loge, box seat and club suite. The All-Pro package allows groups to purchase 50 tickets or more, from any seating category, to any of the 21 sessions, and in turn receive two complimentary Stadium Box seat tickets to any session of their choice. This is a great option for tennis clubs whose members may want to attend different sessions throughout the tournament.

If you are looking to bring a high school or college team to watch some amazing tennis, the team package of 10 or more per session provides a 30 percent discount on loge seating, a complimentary ticket for every 10 purchased and recognition for your team in Stadium 1.

BALL KIDS NEEDED FOR 2016 BNP PARIBAS TOURNAMENT

In added tennis news, the BNP Paribas Open is recruiting ball kids for the 2016 event, scheduled for March 7 to 29. Kids ages 12-20 are eligible to try out. Those interested can complete the online ball kid application, download the training manual and successfully pass an assessment test (log-in information will be sent upon receipt of the completed ball kid application). Ball kids also need to attend and complete four training sessions (January 16-February 6), and work a minimum of five sessions, which will include two day sessions before end of play Monday, March 14.

Ball kids are used for over 300 qualifying and main draw matches, and receive benefits such as an official Fila uniform, autograph sessions with WTA and ATP World Tour players, an official BNP Paribas Open certificate of participation, and a party during the final weekend. For more information, visit www.bnpparibasopen.com/en/get-involved/ball-kids.

Indian Wells Golf Resort Announces Overseeding Dates

Annual overseeding of our golf terrain recently began with the September 27-October 16 closure of the Players course. The Celebrity Course will be closed from October 18 to November 7. This is an important practice which allows the courses to be in peak shape throughout the year, with the staggered dates enabling citizens to still enjoy golf access during the overseeding period.

In other golf news, major turf reduction and water conservation projects have recently been completed at Indian Wells Golf Resort. Most new turf reduction has occurred in non-playable areas, and it has been replaced with beautiful hardscaping. Many non-turf watering systems are currently being replaced with drip irrigation systems to help control water usage, and a new weather station is helping to manage where and when irrigation water is used. These last two advancements are expected to save close to 10 million gallons of water per year.

INDIAN WELLS ROTARY CLUB

COMMUNITY FOCUS WITH A GLOBAL FOOTPRINT

If you are looking for a way to get involved with a strong community service organization, one local option is the Indian Wells Rotary Club. Rotary members are area leaders, community members and business owners who exchange ideas to solve local problems, and who enjoy access to the organization's ongoing speaker series. The group meets Mondays for lunch at the Indian Wells Golf Resort, with further details available from Claudette Pais at (760) 565-7270, or Rod Hendry at (760) 485-8988.

One of the local club's members, Sang Kahng, is currently traveling to Russia with a group of regional Rotarians on a mission to foster friendship and understanding. The local club is also raising funds for student scholarships via its Indian Wells Rotary Cookbook with 246 outstanding recipes from world-class chefs from local country clubs and restaurants, as well as Rotarians and friends. To purchase a cookbook, please contact Claudette Pais at (760) 565-7270.

With 1.2 million members, Rotary International has six areas of focus:

- Peace and conflict prevention/resolution
- Water and sanitation
- Basic education and literacy
- Disease prevention and treatment
- Maternal and child health
- Economic and community development

Since 1985, one of Rotary's primary goals has been to eradicate worldwide the crippling disease of polio. In 2007, the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation donated $200 million toward the cause. The first $100 million was an outright gift. The second $100 million is released, dollar for dollar, as Rotarians contribute to polio eradication.
